

A Call to Artists Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) Light-box Project

The Chandler Arts Commission is seeking artworks by local and regional artists representing themes and images supporting advocacy for the arts, to be reproduced for a Bus Rapid Transit, (BRT), Lightbox exhibition as a part of the Historic Downtown Chandler Arizona Avenue corridor improvements. The exhibition has the potential to impact the community by promoting the importance of arts advocacy in our community and schools, and providing hope and inspiration for the future of art as an integral part of our everyday surroundings.

The Project includes nine, double-sided light boxes, 30 inches tall, by 40 inches wide, backlit from the interior. All artworks will be reproduced from digital imagery of originals. This call is open to all mediums and messages relating to the theme.

Please submit:

- 1) a CD-ROM/DVD of up to 6 digital images, no larger than 8" x 10", 200 dpi
- 2) An Artist's Statement
- 3) Curriculum Vitae and/or Previous exhibition history
- 4) Self addressed stamped envelope for return of materials

Submissions will be accepted until Thursday, July 1, 2010. Submit to:
